

2005-2007 Editorial Calendar

DEPARTMENTS

Forward Thinking: Trend, Opinion, Insight, Hurdle

State of Mind: In-depth one-on-one interview

Science Matters: Latest groundbreaking science and research

Meeting of the Minds: Opposing opinions on key issues

Final analysis: Closing comments

Noteworthy: News and notes

36 pages – 4/color throughout

ISSUE	SPECIAL FEATURES
Volume I Issue 1	Public Health Peril of Suicide - Claiming nearly one million lives each year globally, suicide is one of the leading causes of death. Also Why People Die By Suicide: An interview with researcher/survivor Thomas E. Joiner. Battle Scars: Suicide among veterans; States Seeking Services.
Volume I Issue 2	Suicide in Rural Areas – Lost in Rural America; The challenges, the progress, the hope. Also Tragedy in Indian Country: Soaring suicide among Native Americans; Fatal Connection: Firearms and completed suicide; farmer-psychologist Mike Rosmann sows hope.
Volume II Issue 1	Youth Suicide and the Role of Schools – Colleges, high schools, elementary schools; promising programs, issues that impede treatment of teens. Substance abuse as an indicator.
Volume II Issue 2	Suicide Among the Aged – Better access, better treatment, and the coming crisis as Baby Boomers age. Also stigma and shame: The conspiracy of silence and its toll. Parity for mental health services.
Volume II Issue 3	Women and Suicide – What rates among women can teach us about curbing higher rates in other populations. Postpartum depression and domestic violence issues related to suicide. Women's contributions to prevent suicide.
Volume II Issue 4	Risk and Suicide – Curbing risk for clinicians, schools, survivors, hospitals, correctional facilities, law enforcement and others. Also: Suicide notes and tapes – what do they reveal? New and better therapies to treat suicidal people.
Volume II Issue 5	Men at Risk – Suicide among men in their young adult and middle-aged years. Also correctional prevention – promising practices for curbing jail and prison suicides. Addictive disorders and suicide. Imposing forced detention and medication. No-suicide contracts.
Volume II Issue 6	Survivors of Suicide Loss – Activism on Capitol Hill and in Hollywood: How survivors are driving national suicide prevention efforts forward. Also Good Grief: Bereavement interventions. Humiliation and other predictors of suicide.
Volume III Issue 1	The Gatekeepers – Primary care physicians, clergy, self-help groups, crisis interventionists, law enforcement all partnering to prevent suicide. Also training of professionals.
Volume III Issue 2	Diverse Cultures and Suicide – Diversity, ethnicity, sexual identity and suicide. Also The Change Makers: Movers who are shaking up suicide prevention. Semantics of suicide. Does killing yourself take courage?

Please be advised that themes may be rescheduled due to publication needs and priorities.

Rev. 12/12/05